Customer Privacy Notice

EDF Energy Customers Limited (“we”, “us”, “our”) respects your privacy and values the trust you place in us when you share your personal information with us. This policy sets out how we, as data controller, collect and use your personal information, why we use it, with whom we share it, the rights to which you may be entitled and your choices about our use of your personal information, that may arise from you buying and using our products and services. We regularly review this policy and will notify you of any significant changes by email or post. We encourage you to check this policy on a regular basis. If you have any questions or need any further clarity, please get in touch with our Data Protection Officer by emailing dpo@edfenergy.com

This policy was last updated on 6 May 2025.

	What we collect This category of information we collect about you includes:	How we use it We use this information for certain activities, including to:	Why we use it We use this information because:
Information that we collect incidentally from other sources or public sources, including:	Information presented on our social media or wider media platforms such as Facebook or Twitter;  Information collected by security systems;  Information provided by Citizens Advice, the Energy Ombudsman or solicitors;  Information relating to energy consumption and contact details from energy registers, landlords, letting and managing agents, gas transporters and network distributors.	Maintain market awareness;  Build and maintain social media branding, and our branding in general;  Deal with complaints received;  Address subject access requests;  Check and confirm validity and maintain the accuracy of data we hold in our systems about you or premises we supply;  To locate premises that have been demolished so that we can remove supply.	We have a legitimate business interest in:  providing security over our business;  maintaining a public profile within the media;  resolving customer's complaints;  maintaining the accuracy of data we hold.  In addition to the above, where we have obtained your consent to use the data in this explicit way, then we can rely on that consent.

Marketing Communications & Preferences

We will process your personal information to send you marketing communications because we have a legitimate interest to keep you up to date with our products and services. This applies to all our past and current customers who have either opted-in or have not opted-out of receiving marketing communications, and any other persons who have previously provided their personal information to us when expressing an interest in our products or services.

All emails containing direct marketing will have an unsubscribe option made available to you and you can update any of your opt-in marketing preferences by phoning us on 0333 006 9950, or by logging into your account on MyAccount.

Information we share

There are certain circumstances where we may transfer your personal data to employees, contractors and to other third parties. Some examples of when your personal information is transferred to other third party organisations are listed below.

We may share information about you with other members of our group of companies so that we can provide the best service across our group. They are bound to keep your information in accordance with this privacy policy;

We may also share your information with certain contractors or service providers and they may process your personal data for us. They are always required to meet our standards on processing information and security. The information we provide them, including your information, will only be provided in connection with the performance of their function.

If we're discussing selling or transferring part or all of our business – the information may be transferred to prospective purchasers under suitable terms as to confidentiality – or if sold, to buyers who can continue to provide services to you;

If we're required to by law, or under any regulatory code or practise we follow, or if we are asked by any public or regulatory authority – for example, the Police; Ofgem or Department for Energy Security and Net Zero – or bring or to defend any legal claims;

If you are registered on our Priority Services Register, we will share your information with the relevant network operators (such as Distribution Network Operators and/or Gas Transporters) to assist them in securing a constant and safe supply of energy to your property; and/or

Your personal data may be shared if it is made anonymous and aggregated, as in such circumstances the information will cease to be personal data;

If you decide to change suppliers, we may share such information with the new supplier.

Credit Reference Agencies

If you have a Residential and/or Small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) account with us we will share information about you and your account (including details of any outstanding debt or borrowing) with the below credit reference agencies. The identities of the credit reference agencies, their role also as fraud prevention agencies, the data they hold, the ways in which they use and share personal information, data retention periods and your data protection rights with the credit reference agencies are explained in more detail in the Credit Reference Agency Information Notice (CRAIN). CRAIN is accessible from each of the three credit reference agencies by clicking on the CRAIN links below.

Automated decision making

We may make automated decisions on certain matters. For example, we may do this to decide whether we can provide our services to you based on our group records or a credit check. This will be informed by credit scoring where we share your information with credit reference agencies, screening on databases and confirmation of your information (including by third parties). Depending on the outcome of the credit check, a decision will be reached automatically as to whether we are able to provide products or services to you based on your credit worthiness. If this information is not provided, we cannot agree to provide a product or service for you.

For customers who have a smart meter installed or enter into a new contract with us, we will look to use any half hourly smart meter data you agree to us using to help meet our net zero targets and manage a smarter more flexible energy system.

Where and for how long your information will be held

We process personal information (which can be via third parties) within and outside the European Economic Area. We will make sure that the appropriate safeguards are in place prior to the transfer of personal information and in the majority of cases, we will have contractual protections in place which include standard data protection clauses.

We will keep your information for as long as it is reasonably necessary and this will depend on factors such as: the sensitivity of the information; whether you've still got an active account; any outstanding debt with us; if you have interacted with recent offers; to comply with our legal and regulatory obligations; resolve disputes; and enforce our agreements.

Your rights

You have certain rights in relation to your information but some of these rights will only apply in certain circumstances. They will generally not be available if there are outstanding contracts between us, if we are required by law to keep the information or if the information is relevant to a legal dispute. If you would like to exercise or discuss any of these rights, please contact the Data Protection Officer.

- You can ask us to confirm if we are processing your information;
- You can ask for access to your information;
- You can ask to correct your information if it's wrong;
- You can ask us to delete your information;
- You have a right to be forgotten and you can ask that our systems stop using your information;
- You can ask us to restrict how we use your information;
- You can ask us to help you move your information to other companies;
- You can ask us to stop using your personal information, but only in certain cases; and
- You have the right to complain to the relevant supervisory authority.
